HOUSING ACTION CAMPAIGN

Stop the evictions at St Ultans

Housing is a right not a privilege

MARCH TO THE DAIL

TUESDAY 29TH JUNE 7.00PM
ASSEMBLE ST ULTANS FLATS CHARLEMONT STREET

The O'Mahony Development company is attempting to force tenants, including 76-year-old Essie Keeling, from their homes in St Ultans flats, Charlemont St.

The developers want to redevelop the site and sell it off for more profitable ends. Local people have been resisting the evictions and threats with round the clock pickets and protests.

This has forced Dublin Corporation to make concessions. The Corpo must now be made to honour the recent promise made by councillors to buy up the flats.

The government have cried crocodile tears about the housing crisis. It's about time they were forced to take action to provide housing for all.

Join the picket at St Ultan's flats, bring a delegation from your workplace,and join the march to the Dail on Tueday 29th June.
